

Licensed Mental Health Counselor or Licensed Social Worker

The Recovery Research Network is seeking a Licensed Mental Health Counselor (LMHC) or Licensed Social Worker (LICSW or LCSW) to join an interdisciplinary team driven to save lives by helping patients achieve REMISSION from addiction.

The Licensed Mental Health Counselor or Licensed Social Worker will provide psychosocial treatment services for individuals dealing with substance use disorder. As part of the clinical team, this individual will provide assessment and evaluation services, formulate effective treatment plans, conduct individual and/or group counseling, and case management services. The licensed Counselor/Social Worker is responsible for ensuring that the needs of the patients are met in accordance with the clinics policies and procedures, federal and state regulations and applicable standards of care.

Qualifications:

- Current Florida License – LMHC, LICSW or LCSW, required
- Master of Social Work
- 5+ years Social Work experience
- 2+ years of social work specifically working in addiction/substance use disorder treatment
- Supervisory experience
- Excellent organizational skills
- Must be flexible
- Ability to work collaborate in a team as well as independently
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Excellent computer skills

If you are interested in being considered for the LMHC/LICSW/LCSW position, please email your resume to info@TRRN.org

The Recovery Research Network

110 JFK Drive, Suite 118
Atlantis, FL 33462

www.TRRN.org